MRS. DEWEY IN A SOCIAL WAR.

Claims Precedence Over Mrs. Miles and Will Assert Rights.

HER WINTER CAMPAIGN.

WIII Stay in Washington, Oc. cupy People's House and Fight It Out.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.-Mrs. Dewey has begun a new campaign to assert her right to precedence as wife of the Admiral. She will stay in Washington and will occupy the house presented to Dewey by the nation.

On the first anniversary of her maisriage to Admiral Dewey, Nov. II. slea for this purpose the Dewey house has been entirely refurnished.

The furniture left there by Mr. Fitch Dewey has been packel away in the attic of Beauvoir, the Deweys' country home. Mr. Fitch has objected to this, as many of the trappings were of gra at family interest, and he only sold them because of the Admiral's urgent request that the house be sold furnished.

Mr. Fitch has offered to rebuy the old

Fitch heirlooms; but Mrs. Dowey has peremptorily refused to sell. So the ncient bric-a-brac will gather dust in a country attic, while new and gorst sous trappings adorn the Dewey home. Mrs. Dewey has also bought a num-ber of new gowns in New York, and she is equipped for a quiet Winter cam-

He made a concert to are here some ten years ago and is now making another one under the direction of Rudolph Aronson. There have been two public opportunities to see him and hear his men pay since shot arrived on Friday morning. The first was at the Waldorf-Astoria on Saturday evening, where by reason, perhaps, of the costliness of seats for what was sheant to be a social as well as a musical function, the attendance was not large. The second was at the McIropolitar Opera-House has inght, where all opuliar prices, there gathered an audicince such as is seen only at Mr. Grai's opera concerts on nights when Caive or some such public favorite is augustuned to sing. The house was uncombirtably crowded.
